

TTIP after the TPP deal

30 November 2015

Internationaler Club, German Federal Foreign Office, Kurstraße 36, Berlin

This high-level panel discussion explores the geopolitical and foreign policy effects of the TPP deal on TTIP. Does TPP undermine the economic and geopolitical relevance of TTIP? Will the signing of TPP influence the TTIP negotiations? What happens to the global trade system if the TTIP talks fail? This event will bring together 60-80 people including officials, experts, journalists, and representatives from business and civil society.

- 12.15 Registration and light lunch
- 12.45 Welcome, Charles Grant, Director of the Centre for European Reform
- 12.50 Introductory remarks, Dieter Haller, Director-General for economic affairs and sustainable development at the German Federal Foreign Office
- 13.00 Short introductory statements by the panellists, chaired by Daniela Schwarzer, Director of the German Marshall Fund's Europe programme
- Pascal Lamy, former Director-General of the World Trade Organisation (WTO)
Joshua P Meltzer, Senior Fellow, Brookings Institution
Petra Pinzler, Author and journalist, Die Zeit
Paula Wilson, Deputy, New Zealand Mission to the European Union
- 13.20 Moderated discussion followed by a Q&A session with the audience
- 14.30 End of event, coffee and networking opportunity

Contacts

German Marshall Fund (GMF): Hans Kundnani

Centre for European Reform (CER): Christian Odendahl and Rem Korteweg

The Centre for European Reform (CER) in London is an independent think-tank devoted to making the European Union work better and strengthening its role in the world. The CER is pro-European but not uncritical, and aims to promote an open, outward-looking and effective European Union.

The German Marshall Fund of the United States (GMF) strengthens transatlantic co-operation on regional, national, and global challenges and opportunities in the spirit of the Marshall Plan. Founded in 1972 as a non-partisan, non-profit organisation through a gift from Germany as a permanent memorial to Marshall Plan assistance, GMF maintains a strong presence on both sides of the Atlantic.